Vivere Barovier&Toso è sempre un'emozione, originata da settecento anni di storia sapientemente valorizzati in un processo di reinvenzione continua. Una storia affascinante, che prende avvio nel 1295 – quando un Barovier appare per la prima volta nei documenti storici dell'epoca che parlano della “materia vetro” – e che prosegue di generazione in generazione, superando indenne guerre, epoche, stili e gusti con una capacità di trasformazione e rinnovamento che solo passione e dedizione possono dare.

Experiencing Barovier&Toso is a continuous emotion which originates from seven hundred years of history that are skilfully nurtured in an ongoing reinventive process.

This charming story started in 1295 – the first time a Barovier appeared in the historical documents of the period which discussed “glass material” – and has continued from generation to generation, overcoming wars, eras, styles and tastes unscathed, with an ability for transformation and innovation that only passion and dedication can instil.

Angelo il Grande e il suo “cristallo”,

Ercole e le sue invenzioni e il suo design: separati da cinque secoli eppure così simili nella loro genialità e nella sensibilità, per cogliere il cambiamento che le loro rispettive epoche imponeva per tramandare un'arte fino ai giorni nostri.

Barovier&Toso ancora oggi interpreta il gusto dei tempi, coniugando la tradizione vetraria degli avi con tendenze e innovazioni negli stili e nelle tecnologie, e arricchisce la vita e le emozioni di

Angelo the Great and his “crystal”,

Ercole and his inventions and design:

separated by five centuries, and yet so similar

in their brilliance and sensitivity as to understand the change

that their respective periods imposed in order to pass

on an art to this day and age.

Even today, Barovier&Toso interprets the tastes

of the period by combining the glass tradition

of its forefathers with trends and innovations

in style and technology.

chi sa cogliere le sfumature del “bello”.

Per meglio raccontare queste emozioni, abbiamo raccolto in un libro le suggestioni che un lampadario Barovier&Toso accende quando viene inserito nel contesto di un'abitazione: tre stili abitativi diversi, molte case ma uno stesso ed inimitabile stile Barovier&Toso.

A dimostrazione della versatilità di una creazione che è fatta per essere ammirata, non solo per fare luce.

In doing so, it enhances the life and the emotions of those who know how to capture the nuances of “beauty”.

To better describe these emotions,

we have gathered in a book the splendour that a Barovier&Toso chandelier ignites when

it's included in a home:

three diverse residential styles.

Many homes, but the same inimitable Barovier&Toso style.

A demonstration of the versatility of a creation which is made to be admired, and not just to give light.
